St. Cloud Federal Credit Union Introduces Trina LaVigne, Mortgage Loan Officer

Market Leader Joins St. Cloud Federal Credit Union Mortgage Team

St. Cloud, Minnesota: St. Cloud Federal Credit Union is proud to introduce Trina LaVigne as their newest Mortgage Loan Officer, bringing nearly 20 years of banking and mortgage experience from Wells Fargo. In addition to an outstanding career background, and her passion for helping people finance their dream homes make her a valuable new asset to the credit union's team.

Ms. LaVigne has successfully assisted over 1,200 people, helping them to achieve their financial goals. She is dedicated to a people first mindset and passionate about guiding people on their financial journey. As a result of her experience and care, Ms. LaVigne was ranked sixth in the region for return customers. "I have enjoyed working with so many people and they have truly become my friends. Buying a home is one of the largest investments in someone's life, and I whole-heartedly appreciate the opportunity to be a part of their journey," stated LaVigne.

Ms. LaVigne's personal philosophy well aligns to St. Cloud Federal Credit Union's mission to make banking meaningful. "We are very excited to have Trina join our team. Not only does she have extensive experience with banking and mortgages, her passion for helping people is palpable!" stated Ali Peichel, Mortgage Manager for St. Cloud Federal Credit Union.

In addition to a well-established career, Ms. LaVigne also contributes to her local community as a member of Habit for Humanity, Junior Achievement, and Biz 2 Biz - Sartell chapter. Ms. LaVigne spends her free time at the cabin with her two boys, Rylee (17) and Reece (12), fishing and working on her home. "I am excited to start this new adventure at St. Cloud Federal Credit Union, helping members realize their dreams of home ownership!" stated LaVigne.
